Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was discussed: Applicant agreed to amend claims 23,25,27,28, and 30-31 to read that the assembly being sintered and heated is an arc tube assembly formed by the insertion of an end cap of a capillary tube into an open end of a hollow arc tube. Previously, the claims did not clearly note that the assembly being sintered and heated was an assembly formed in step b of claims 23 and 28 of the instant application. Instead, the originally filed claims noted that the transient assembly button was the assembly being heated and sintered.
